Trust in Miriam's Message

"My help comes from God, the maker of heaven and earth."
Psalm 121:1

Dear Ones,

One of the fun things that I have noticed about our current situation is how good people are finding ways to get the message out about social distancing. There is the internet cat giving us paw-washing advice, or the father-daughter duo singing a new song about staying home. Silly things. But wonderful things. Because they come from the kindest part of ourselves: the part that wants even strangers to be well.

Our own Miriam wants to share her advice with us! It comes as a carefully handwritten letter – decorated with a string bow at the top left corner – and neatly printed in capital letters. She tells me that she misses us all very much.

TO MY LOVE ONE MOM AND DAD EVERY DAY AND NIGHT I WILL AVOID TOUCHING MY FACE, EYES, NOSE, AND ALL TAPS AND MY BREATHING MACHINE MASK AND I WILL DO MY PART TO STAY AWAY FROM STORES AND REMEMBER TO BE IN THE CAR ALL THE TIME AND MAKE SURE TO STAY HOME SO EVERY ONE AND MIRIAM WILL DO SOCIAL DISTANCING AND I SEE PEOPLE ON COVID 19 WEARING MASK AND GLOVES SO THEY KEEP THEIR OWN MASK ON TO KEEP WORLD HEALTHY AGAIN AND I DON'T NEED CORONAVIRUS SPREADING ANYMORE AND I WANT IT TO END SOON SO I CAN SEE FAMILY AND FRIENDS AND I WILL KEEP WASHING MY HANDS DAY AND NIGHT WILL BE JOURNEY WORLD PLACE FOR ME

Thank you, Miriam. We miss you, too!

See you soon, we hope.

Grace to you, and peace,

Kate
